Artan VI and Aziza to the peers and subjects of the Outlands.

Trusty etc., We greet you well.

We shall invest Sir Qara Gon and The Honorable Lady Ceara McCain as the Baron and Baroness of Fontaine dans Sable at the Barony's twelfth night celebration. Thank you to all the candidates who were willing to be considered, and for the sound counsel and advice given to us by the populace.

The gracious welcome We were given by the people of Windkeep during the Festival of Lights pleased Us well. Their generous outpouring of respect was a gift gratefully received.

Award recommendations hit a snag. Some recommendations entered through the recommendations form on the kingdom website were unreceived; then a batch was received all at once, and late, but we suspect several were just lost. Please re-enter anything you think might have gone astray, and if you get a confirmation e-mail, that's sufficient. If you do not receive a confirmation e-mail, please use regular e-mail (addresses in the front of this issue), paper mail, speak to us in person, or some other way. The form is supposed to be a convenience, not a blockage.

Creativity is welcome! We thank the autocrats of Midwinter for both Caer Galen and al-Barran for their service and their inventive events.

We look forward to Estrella War, where the Outlands shall stand with our ally Atenveldt, and any others who will join us. We encourage each and every one of Our subjects who can attend to do so.

Master Tarkus has petitioned for Our leave to attend the Estrella War. Members of the Order of Chivalry were polled as to their opinion on this matter and they have been informed of Our decision to allow him to attend conditionally. Others who have an interest may view the text of Our letter here: http://sandradodd.com/crown/tarkus

In the cold and dark, as we wait for Spring and the new year, open your lives to others, and share your light and warmth and generosity. By so doing you will make your shire, barony or household better, you will make the Outlands better, and your own life will be richer than before you shared.

In service to the Outlands,

King

Queen

White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, fellow Outlanders!

I hope to announce my successor early this month - please watch the outlands and outlands-heralds yahoogroups for that news.

On the matter of Domesdays – November reports are due by the 10th of December. December reports are cancelled to give you more time to complete your Domesday. Domesday reports are due no later than January 15th, but will be accepted any time after your branch's final event of the year. Requirements for the Domesday reports have been posted to the outlands-heralds yahoogroup - if you are a herald who is not subscribed to that list, contact me for the requirements, or better yet, subscribe to the list, which conveniently archives such things.

LOAR RESULTS: The August 2006 LoAR has been received. Details are, or soon will be, available at http://www.sca.org/heraldry/loar/, and submitters will be notified by postal mail.

I remain yours in glad service and duty,
THLady Sorcha MacLeod

Earl Marshall

War continues to get closer.
Training has begun in earnest.
The Outlands prepares to meets its foes

War is coming. As last year, I am asking each authorized marshal that is not in the command structure to pick one battle to marshal. Last year, the Outlands showed it's service bu consistently having the most marshals on each battle. Let's at least match that. Also, as last year, new fighters who have authorized less than a month before the war will not be allowed on the field. So get authorized EARLY.

His Grace Olaf, the General, has been to many lands of our Kingdom. His training exercises are useful year round. Keep them in mind.

There will also be a few more great war practices coming up. Check the events listing in this OH for more info on them. Out of Kingdom, there is also a war maneuvers practice with our friends in Calontir the weekend of the 21st.

In service,
Mavrikii

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Outlands,

War is but a few short months away. The A & S categories for this year are:

Instrumental Music Performance - Within our time period. A single performance, instrumental only (no singing or dancing). No prerecorded music allowed. 10 Minute time limit.
Felting - Within our time period. A single wool item that has been felted. Use of mercury nitrate is not suggested.
Equestrian Equipment - One single period item (excluding the horse) needed for equestrian supplies that would be worn by the horse.

At this coming Estrella XXIII, the A & S competition is by pre-registration only. What this means is, if you wish to enter the A & S competition at war, you must fill out the pre-registration form and have it turned in by no later than 1 February 2007. Further information can be located on the Estrella War site at:
http://www.estrellawar.org/ArtsSciences/EstrellaWarASCompetition/tabid/346/Default.aspx

If you have questions, please contact myself or Master Rhys who is the War Council Laurel Representative.

Bids for Kingdom A & S competition are currently being accepted. This event is to be held April 14th. We are looking for bids from the Southern region as this event was held in the North last year. Please send a copy of the bid to the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal and myself.

In Service,
Mistress Marguerite Dinard

Minister of the List

To the Kingdom of the Outlands, Good Day!

Since we are coming to the end of another year, I have been reflecting on all the people who make my job so easy. I cannot thank each of you directly, or the pages would be full of names (most of which I would probably misspell anyway) and those good deeds.

It is amazing the amount of work involved in running a simple tournament. There are so many people who step up, and although it may seem like they are doing a trivial thing, without them nothing would be accomplished well. The very people who make everything run so smoothly are those who don't think they are doing anything special.

I thank all of you who have set up tables, found chairs, put up shade pavilions, kept water and goodies stocked and within reach, ran cards, heralded rounds, thought to grab me lunch, marshaled, kept the field clearly visible, and helped run the list.

These are all fairly thankless jobs, and I feel neglectful for not making clear my appreciation for all who have helped me, directly or indirectly, on these pages. The Crowns, Autocrats and other Kingdom officers do a fantastic job of making sure that everything is ready before the event, but these little things are what make this office worth doing.

Thank you all. As Ever Yours,
Lady Mariah Abramsdottir

Marshal of Fence

Greetings unto the Rapier Fighters of the Outlands,

First I would like to thank Don Charles for staying on an extra seven months. Second, I would like to thank those who expressed an interest and willingness to serve in the position of Drop Dead Deputy. Keeping in mind the considerations I have for the position I have selected Don Ulric for the position.

Remember to check you authorizations as the cutoff for melee at war approaches.

In Service,
Don Christian

Minister of Children

Unto the great populace of the Outlands does Lady Jayne Barber send greetings.

Members of the Outlands Youth Team have been talking with our children and teens throughout our Kingdom these last few months to get their input as to what they would like to see happen in the Outlands for the youth. They want to do what the adults do—take A&S classes, participate in archery shoots, be of service and have separate classes and activities for different ages of children. They want to know when youth are welcome to help with the serving at feasts, water bearing, running list cards, heralding tournaments, town crying and running errands and most importantly, who to contact. They want more advanced classes for children and want to know when they are welcome to take the adults A&S classes, so please include which A&S classes have a minimum age requirement in your class information. They want to know when and where the youth activities are being held at events. They want training from their local groups in archery, light and heavy weapons. They want mentors, but they don't know how to find someone to mentor them and many of them are afraid to ask adults about mentoring. They want to serve on retinues as pages and handmaidens. The Outlands Youth Team is working to better meet these wants throughout the Kingdom.

We hope that each of you will decide to help with the youth in your local group. The coordinators of youth activities and classes are always in need of volunteers. So in all of those things you do this coming year, remember to include the youth of the Outlands in your plans. You will enrich their lives, as well as your own.

We also hope you will join the Outlands Youth Team and share with us your experience, knowledge, enthusiasm, ideas, support and expertise. Everyone, who is interested in youth activities and issues in the Outlands is welcome to become a member of the Outlands Youth Team by joining our discussion group at http://groups.yahoo.com/group/OutlandsYouthTeam/ This discussion list is our primary means of communicating and discussing ideas and supporting each other.

In service,
Lady Jayne Barber

Archer General

Greetings all! Let me begin by apologizing for having been remiss in posting articles in the Outlandish Herald.

Estrella War is fast approaching. The archery shoots are finished and they look like they will be fun this year as usual. I look forward to seeing many Outlands archers there this year. If you don't know me, please stop and introduce yourself. I will be flying the Outlands Archer General's flag at my encampment. Now that the IKAC season has drawn to an end, I would like to thank all our archers for participating in this Knowne World shoot. If you would like to contact me personally you can e-mail me at baronlarke@comcast.net.

In Service,
Larke

Once again, 12th Night is upon us. Come join us at St Mark's Episcopal Church for a warm evening of feasting, T-tunics, entertainment, fun and fellowship. Feast will consist of cider to drink, sweet spinach pies (they're actually quite good), breads & butters & cream-cheesey-things, a foul fowl w/ twice baked potatoes, venison meatballs w/ cucumber salad, fungi steak w/ mashed turnips, and a trifle. There will be a donation lunch of our traditional ham & leek & lentil soup w/ breads.

The dance class has unfortunately been canceled. There will be a Senet Tournament (Egyptian equivalent to Chess), the prize being a hand made Senet board with pieces. The deadline for the Wanton T-tunic contest (the product of reading bad romance novels and having a curious mind) is Jan 1st; all entries must include a wearable T-tunic and documentation on said garment. If trim is used, one arm, the neckline or the hem must be completed. All tunics must be modeled in the fashion show. Entries will be judged based on 5 criteria: period materials, period technique, period design/pattern, documentation, and modeling in the fashion show. Please contact Catriona, or Arnora Hammarskjolddot-tir (307-237-3335) if you have an entry, or are willing to judge. To make reservations for feast, or for dietary concerns, please contact the feast coordinators. For any other questions, please contact the autocrat.

Come join us for an evening of feasting, A&S, dancing, story-telling and fun.

As the far off and distant drums of WAR call to us, many are left to wonder.....Who will plant our crops, take care of our cattle, raise our children while we are away? Who do we trust to pay our ransom should we be in need? Who among our peoples will be left to carry on as the glorious fighters of the Outlands go off to WAR?

As any fighter will tell you, those we leave behind are as important as those who fight next to us.

In the center of the Outlands within the Barony of Dragonsspine, lies a small Abbey where children of the local area are educated and taught the skills and lessons of the day. The pride of the Outlands is its children and these same youth are proud to announce their first ever EVENT. They have spent the year preparing to welcome you as their guests. For this special event they have devised a Tournament like no other...a Tournament to test the skills and mettle of our Kingdom's Consorts.

So, Come one and all to the Dragonsspine Candlemas and Consorts Tourney. Rest a while among your friends and family in our Great Hall. Dance the afternoon away or watch the fighters in the court yard. Yes, there will be FIGHTING and ARCHERY tournaments as well...for those who can handle the cold. Indoor competitions will rule the day as the best of our kingdom try to impress one another with their skills in the "consortly arts". This is a day to recoup and gather one's strength for the coming battles. This is a day to see who among us is the better Consort.

For further details and reservation information please check the Outlands and Dragonsspine events calendars.

Estrella War XXIII, Kingdom of Atenveldt February 13-19, 2007

Royalty, fighters, families, artisans all, are invited to attend Estrella War XXIII held February 13-19, 2007. The war will be at Canyon Moon Ranch located in Florence, AZ
Site opens February 13 at 8am for pre-registered.
8am 14 February for those not pre-registered.

PRE-REGISTRATION IS TAKING PLACE NOW

War comes upon us and in less than eight weeks we shall be on the site of Estrella War XXIII. Are you prepared for battle? Is your Arts & Sciences project up to the challenge? Does your tent still leak from last year? Now is the time to prepare for the second largest war in the known world. Know you now that registration is still open and shall be until 31 January 2007. Pray, go to the website and see for yourselves. http://www.estrellawar.org/ At present we will host approximately 139 merchants, so bring your coin. Heavy weapons combat? Please read the treaty and you'll find days of scenarios for your fighting pleasure. Rapier too? Read on, there will be at least one full tourney per day plus independently scheduled scenarios. Archery, you bet. Food, by the barrel. Games, youth activities, and special events by the dozen.

Greetings unto the Known World from the Main Autocrats for Estrella War XXIII.

Since our move to the new site, many rumors have been spread about it. With those rumors came disenchantment with yet another move and some have said they would not attend because of it. We wish to stop these rumors by simply stating, check the web site and see for yourself that it is indeed green, fertilizer and pesticide free. Keep checking the web site, as new information will be posted almost daily.

Like any other event held within the Dream, this event known as Estrella War cannot function nor run well without volunteers. Fighters cannot last long in tournaments or war scenarios without water bearers, injured fighters cannot return without the Chirurgeons, we cannot enjoy the event itself nor feel safe for ourselves or our property without security, tournament and war scenarios cannot come to fruition without moving bales and marshalling, you cannot attend Estrella War without paying or signing in at Troll, so give of yourself to the volunteer corps for at least one hour. Better yet, small groups or even Kingdoms can volunteer a whole shift or a complete day. Volunteer!

Until we meet at Estrella War XXIII, safe travels and a healthy life to you.

Greetings Outlands,

WAR is approaching and we are calling on all of our wonderful Oultanders to step up and volunteer. As always, we have pledged our support to the Kingdom of Atenveldt. Let's not let them down! Lady Slaine and I are here to ensure that doesn't happen. Everyone did a fantastic job of volunteering last year and we are hoping you will be as generous this year. We are this year's Volunteer Coordinators.

Don't be timid! Volunteering at WAR is a great way to get to know new people or visit with old friends. We are not asking you to spend your whole event volunteering, but we are asking that everyone try to fit a 2 hour slot in. If you get there on Wednesday and leave on Sunday you have 120 hours to try to fit that in!

We would like to get a list going of people willing to volunteer, so when we find out the capacity in which we are needed we will be ready. Contact information is listed below. If emailing, please provide the following information:

Name
SCA Name
Email address
Phone number
Volunteer Preference
Day and Time Preference

Security, gate duty, privy detail, marshalling, water bearing – there's something for everyone! I know some people might have already checked the box on the pre-registration form. Atenveldt will probably contact you directly, but please still send us the information too. Lady Slaine and I will have sign up forms at all the next events and war/fighter practices that we attend and at WAR, or you can also visit Estrella War site on the internet for your own volunteer forms.

Remember, for every volunteer hour you put in, the Outlands and your Barony, Shire, College or Canton benefits. Don't be the last one in your Barony to sign up!

Words from the Outlands Land Coordinators for Estrella

Greetings Outlanders!
WAAAARRRR!

I've put up a web site that shows more details on what is going on with the new Estrella site. You can access it here: http://OutlandsEstrella.home.bresnan.net

Per the treaty the Outlands is being allocated 4 "motel" rooms in the dormitory on site. By order of Their Royal Majesties, these will be allocated to Outlanders who are in need of special medical equipment requiring electricity (there are no electrical outlets in the camping area). The single rooms sleep 6 (two double beds and two twin beds) with a full bathroom and ac/heat. No micro/kitchen area but full electricity to set something up. The rooms also have a large dresser and a desk with a chair. The double rooms have the same thing as the single but no center dividing wall. So double the beds, two bathrooms, etc. Final price is $400 for the week (must purchase the whole week, no partial weeks). This price is for the room for the week so if 6 people share it works out to about $ 67 per person!
Payment and actual reservations will be made directly to the site owner (information will be forthcoming on this). Per Their Majesties, I will coordinate room requests, with priority going to those with medical needs. To be considered for a room, please send me your SCA name, Mundane name and the medical or other reason that you would like one of the rooms. I will consult with Their Majesties and we will have a decision back to you by mid January. At that time, you will need to reserve the rooms directly with the site owner. My contact information is at the bottom of this missive.

To clarify some questions asked:

1. Land Allocation is 225 square feet per person with a paid site fee. This allows us to put a central road down the center of our encampment, and eliminates having to carry your camp goods across the berms (see the web site). The per person allocation includes ropes, cooking tents, fire pits, dance areas, etc., so if you want a large common area, you need to group together.
3. Groups: This year the minimum size of group for allocated land will be 20 paid campers. Other groups either will be put in overflow. Land will be allocated in the following order: Royals, Baronies, Other Landed Groups and finally to households. It is recommended that groups that do not have the 20 person minimum team up with other groups to bring their numbers up to minimum. (i.e. Cantons camp within their Barony, Colleges with their nearest local group and households teaming up).
4. Please pre-register. We have space for 775 people in the Outlands camp. I am getting estimates from all of the landed groups, but if the estimates exceed 775, we may have to allocate land only to pre-reg'd folks, with those who show up with out reservations going to overflow. Depending on numbers, we MAY have overflow in the Outlands camp, but the event overflow is on the other side of the site. You can pre-reg online at: www.estrellawar.org. The cut-off date for Outlands Land allocation is January 15, 2007 (please note that I would still like group estimates by December 15, final numbers by January 15). If you are not pre-registered by then you WILL go to overflow camping.
5. Start making plans for bringing containers to carry your waste water (cooking water, shower water, washing water, etc.) NO DUMPING ON THE GROUND IS ALLOWED! VIOLATORS WILL BE REMOVED FROM SITE! We are camping on organic alfalfa fields (no pesticides or chemicals). The down side is that all waste water will need to be collected in tanks provided by the site near the porta-johns. Again, dumping on the ground or ditches could result in being asked to leave site. My camp is planning on bringing a wagon and a 15 gallon barrel. This could be an opportunity for enterprising gentles to provide a service.

There's more detail on the web site, and I'll be adding to it frequently, so check back. If anyone has questions, please contact me or Master Domingo the deputy land coordinator.
